

Bryson P. Monteleone

Bryson Monteleone joins Tailwind Capital LLC with over 10 years experience in financing and appraising commercial aircraft. While his primary responsibilities at Tailwind will be to source aircraft remarketing and acquisitions for Tailwind’s select group of clients, he will also be heavily involved with Tailwind Capital’s growing activities in the conversion and marketing of Hemisphere 200XR corporate aircraft.

Prior to his recent appointment at Tailwind Capital, Bryson was with Morten Beyer & Agnew (“mba”) for over ten years serving in various capacities, but most recently as Chief Marketing Officer, where his responsibilities focused on new client development and project origination. Prior to this appointment, he served as Vice President of Marketing and Operations, and Chief Financial Officer. Throughout his tenure at mba Bryson worked extensively with the aviation finance community on various securitization, advisory and re-marketing projects.

Bryson has become a very visible member of aviation community as he continues to speak at conferences and teach workshops worldwide. He has also been interviewed several times by leading media outlets such as: CNN, Bloomberg Television and Radio, NPR, along with leading publications such as Euromoney’s Airfinance Journal, Commercial Aviation Report and BusinessWeek.

Prior to working at mba, he worked extensively in the United States Senate, serving with two separate Senators in legislative and management positions. During that time period, Bryson was also involved in the management of two statewide campaigns.

In 2001, Bryson received his Masters of Business Administration in International Marketing/Management from the American University in Washington, D.C., and is a Certified Aircraft Appraiser of the International Society of Transport Aircraft Traders (ISTAT).
